

quite a cut over his eye in Thursday's scrimmage, but is none the worse for the injury.

James Clay Ward, left tackle, comes from Paris, Ky., and not from Paris, France, though he looks as if he might take care of himself in a scrap. He is in his first year on the eleven. He is a blond, and only twenty years of age. He is five feet ten inches tall, and weighs 180 pounds.

W. Coleman, left guard, is another product of the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College. He is a splendid student and always wears a smile. He is in his first year on the team. He is twenty-one years of age, weighs 181 pounds and is five feet ten inches tall. He is a blond, and only twenty years of age. He is five feet ten inches tall, and weighs 180 pounds.

Claude Moore, right guard, is a native of the State Capital. He is a splendid student and always wears a smile. He is in his first year on the team. He is twenty-one years of age, weighs 181 pounds and is five feet ten inches tall. He is a blond, and only twenty years of age. He is five feet ten inches tall, and weighs 180 pounds.

James T. Gillette, right end, is a native of the State Capital. He is a splendid student and always wears a smile. He is in his first year on the team. He is twenty-one years of age, weighs 181 pounds and is five feet ten inches tall. He is a blond, and only twenty years of age. He is five feet ten inches tall, and weighs 180 pounds.

Had the visitors been able to hold the ball, or had they ten more players of the calibre of little Bertsey, perhaps Richmond College would have experienced greater trouble in defeating William and Mary yesterday afternoon at Broad Street Park.

There was no questioning the superiority of the Spider machine over that of the visitors. Man for man, with the exception of Bertsey, the Williamsburgers were completely outclassed. In every department of football there was little chance for comparison. Richmond College was the more aggressive, and the better drilled of the two. It was not even necessary for Captain Ancewore, Logan and Craig to get into the contest at all.

Richmond College was aided considerably by the butter-fingered visitors, who made fumble after fumble at critical moments. The fumble which followed the local college's first touchdown, carried a Red and Blue pennant, and the very misdeeds which have cost the Spiders more than one hard-fought game, were repeated yesterday.

It was not such a game to watch. The spectators sat huddled in the grandstand trying to shield themselves from a biting north wind, and there was little chance for them to become heated up with enthusiasm. The very fact that the boys had such easy pickings, deterred their interest from experiencing the heat generated by the excitement of a close game. The Spider contingent, however, opened its full repertoire of songs and yells of encouragement.

Richmond College scored in the first three minutes of play, and several times thereafter. The Spiders received the kick-off. They were unable to make material gains on the first two tries, and kicked back to Bertsey, who muffed the oval on the twenty-yard line, and Richmond College recovered it. Pollard swept around the left end for the entire distance and planted the ball between the goal posts. C. Wicker kicked an easy goal.

No more scores were made in the first quarter. William and Mary recovered the kick and essayed three attempts at the line. On the fourth try the oval was fumbled, and Richmond recovered it. The locals were unable to make material gains, and punting and kicking were the only results. The visitors made first down on three attempts, and a lateral pass was muffed and recovered by Richmond in the center of the field.

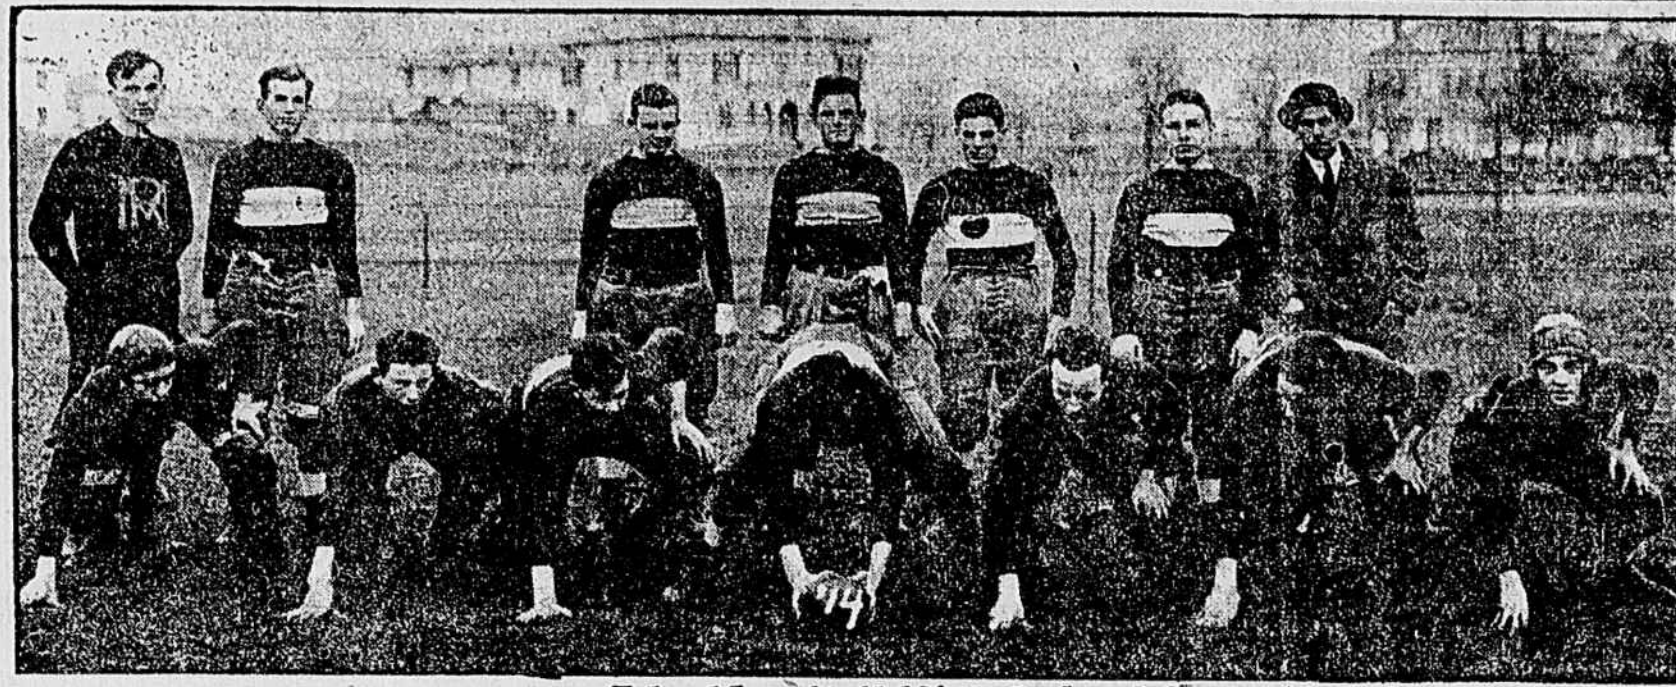

The first forward pass of the game was made at this point. C. Wicker hurled a long pass over the left side of the line, and Cosby tackled the oval out of the air for a twenty-yard gain. Two penalties, aggregating twenty yards, and an incomplete forward pass forced the locals to kick.

William and Mary were unable to gain, and punting was the only result. The visitors attempted to punt, but the ball was blocked, and Newton muffed it up on the rebound and started for the goal, thirty yards away. Pollard put Bertsey out as he was about to bring down the runner, and Newton crossed the line. Again Wicker failed to place the oval over the cross bars. The score stood 19 to 0 in favor of Richmond College.

Although no more scoring was done in this period, both teams played hard and consistent football. The Spider rooters up in their throats by a zizzzagging sprint of twenty yards, which threatened to extend still further. Wicker made a fifteen-yard run, and two forward passes for ten yards each, executed by the Spiders.

In the third quarter William and Mary recovered the kick, and Bertsey carried the ball for twenty yards. A triple pass netted the visitors four yards, but the speedy little

PREP SCHOOL CHAMPIONSHIP FOOTBALL TEAM

Those in the photo, reading from left to right: Back row—Simpson (coach), Anderson, Sales, Stringer, Turner, Owens and Hargrove (manager). Front row—Core, Terry, Gilbert, Rucker, Johnson, Bethel and Brumble (captain).

SPIDERS HAVE EASY TIME WITH WILLIAM AND MARY

Visitors' Fumbles Responsible for Large Score—Locals Execute Five Successful Forward Passes.

CROWD SUFFERS FROM COLD

Richmond College Battlers Lose 105 Yards in Penalties—Robins, Cosby, Roden, Bertsey, Gale and Rothwell Stars of Game.

HOW THE ELEVEN STAND.

Eleven.	W. L. P.
Hampton-Sidney	2 2 .667
Richmond College	3 2 .600
Hampton-Sidney	3 2 .600
William and Mary	1 5 .166

DECKERT'S DROP KICK WINS FOR WOODBERRY FOREST

ORANGE, Va., November 21.—Captain Deckert's drop-kick in the fourth quarter won Woodberry Forest the victory here today over Episcopal High School in the annual contest between these two schools.

The game was fiercely played from beginning to end. The High School started off with a rush, and in the first quarter carried the ball to the end zone. Woodberry Forest, however, was not to be outdone. Captain Deckert's drop-kick in the fourth quarter won the game for Woodberry Forest.

WHITNEY AND GHEE STAR FOR DARTMOUTH

BOSTON, November 21.—Dartmouth defeated Syracuse, 40 to 0. The losers outweighed the Green, but were unable to develop a defense which would stop Whitney and Ghee.

A brilliant run by Ghee in the first period started a march down the field which ended when Whitney crossed the goal line. On the next play, Curtiss went over for another touchdown. He then kicked goal.

The feature came in the second period—A remarkable forward pass from Ghee to Winslow which placed the ball in Syracuse's five-yard mark. Here the first touchdown of the game was scored. Whitney and Ghee displayed the strong defense with which it has been credited, holding for downs. Curtiss played the snatching role in the third period and snatched through for the third score.

To make the defeat more decisive Dartmouth, in the last few minutes, unworked another forward pass, and scored again.

The work of Ghee was wonderful, especially in the running back of punts, while the Dartmouth backs seldom failed to gain from ten to twenty yards.

The lineup: Position. Syracuse. Taylor.....left end.....McElduff (Tuck). Purditt.....left tackle.....McElduff (Tuck). Cotton.....left guard.....Schlaefter (Hild). Gilmore.....center.....Schufel (Merrill). McElduff.....right guard.....T. Johnson (Perry). Spahr.....right tackle.....White (Cumiskey). Winslow.....right end.....Travis (Perry). Ghee.....quarter back.....Seymour (Cumiskey). Whitney.....left half back.....Wilkinson (Curtis). Curtiss.....right half back.....Curtis (Gerrish). Murdoch.....full back.....O'Connell (Gerrish).

Summary—Touchdowns: Whitney (2); Perry, Cumiskey, Winslow. Goals from touchdowns: Ghee (Curtis (2)). Tuck. Referee: Thompson, of the Empire. Periods: Fifteen minutes.

No Score at Lynchburg.

LYNCHBURG, Va., November 21.—Rivermont Athletic Club and the second team of the Virginia Techs played a scoreless game here today. The Rivermonts were the Techs never had a chance to score, and the nearest the locals came to scoring was when Horn took the ball on a tackle on the three-yard line, the scrubs punting to safety.

The feature of the game was the playing of Campbell and Tyne, of the Techs, who made heroic efforts to defeat their home club.

FOOTBALL SEASON ONE OF MANY SURPRISES

Not Week Passed But One or Another of Big Events Received Sovereign Drubbing.

PROFESSIONAL COACH BEST

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

FOOTBALL SEASON ONE OF MANY SURPRISES

Not Week Passed But One or Another of Big Events Received Sovereign Drubbing.

PROFESSIONAL COACH BEST

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

FOOTBALL SEASON ONE OF MANY SURPRISES

Not Week Passed But One or Another of Big Events Received Sovereign Drubbing.

PROFESSIONAL COACH BEST

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

The 1914 football season which closes this week will go down in history as the most surprising, the most spectacular and the most successful financially of any season in the long history of the "rah rah" sport.

The season was filled with surprises of a startling nature. Not one week passed but one or another of the big events received sovereign drubbing.

Yale, Princeton, Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh Show Results of Change From Work of Graduates.

RANDOLPH-MACON SURPRISES TIGERS

Win Game Played at Petersburg by Score of 20 to 0—Winner's Goal Never in Danger.

TEAMWORK FEATURES CONTEST

Fail at Forward Passing—Lancaster at Quarter Back the Star—Driver and Bugg Play Best for Hampden-Sidney Eleven.

PETERSBURG, Va., November 21.—Randolph-Macon's football warriors showed the superiority over Hampden-Sidney here today, easily winning by the score of 20 to 0, the Yellow Jackets outplaying their opponents.

Hampton-Sidney, in a game fight, but were powerless before the onslaught of the Yellow Jackets' backs. The Tigers started with a rush, but were soon brought to a standstill, and the Yellow Jackets pulled together and began to show their superiority.

When Christian intercepted a forward pass in his own thirty-yard line and ran seventy yards for the Yellow Jacket's first score it took the life out of that they appeared dangerous.

This score was made just two minutes before the end of the first half. Hampton-Sidney received the kick-off and started down the field. Driver, carrying the ball for ten yards, Thurman and Pendleton making good gains. Randolph-Macon was penalized twice for being off side.

After short gains, which netted an other first down, the ball stood on the Yellow Jacket's thirty-yard line. Bugg popped the ball for a long kick. The ball went wide of the uprights and was brought out to the twenty-yard line.

The Yellow Jackets called to advance the ball, but still held their ground. They went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the second quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the third quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the fourth quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the fifth quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the sixth quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the seventh quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the eighth quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

RANDOLPH-MACON SURPRISES TIGERS

Win Game Played at Petersburg by Score of 20 to 0—Winner's Goal Never in Danger.

TEAMWORK FEATURES CONTEST

Fail at Forward Passing—Lancaster at Quarter Back the Star—Driver and Bugg Play Best for Hampden-Sidney Eleven.

PETERSBURG, Va., November 21.—Randolph-Macon's football warriors showed the superiority over Hampden-Sidney here today, easily winning by the score of 20 to 0, the Yellow Jackets outplaying their opponents.

Hampton-Sidney, in a game fight, but were powerless before the onslaught of the Yellow Jackets' backs. The Tigers started with a rush, but were soon brought to a standstill, and the Yellow Jackets pulled together and began to show their superiority.

When Christian intercepted a forward pass in his own thirty-yard line and ran seventy yards for the Yellow Jacket's first score it took the life out of that they appeared dangerous.

This score was made just two minutes before the end of the first half. Hampton-Sidney received the kick-off and started down the field. Driver, carrying the ball for ten yards, Thurman and Pendleton making good gains. Randolph-Macon was penalized twice for being off side.

After short gains, which netted an other first down, the ball stood on the Yellow Jacket's thirty-yard line. Bugg popped the ball for a long kick. The ball went wide of the uprights and was brought out to the twenty-yard line.

The Yellow Jackets called to advance the ball, but still held their ground. They went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the second quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the third quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the fourth quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the fifth quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the sixth quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the seventh quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the eighth quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

RANDOLPH-MACON SURPRISES TIGERS

Win Game Played at Petersburg by Score of 20 to 0—Winner's Goal Never in Danger.

TEAMWORK FEATURES CONTEST

Fail at Forward Passing—Lancaster at Quarter Back the Star—Driver and Bugg Play Best for Hampden-Sidney Eleven.

PETERSBURG, Va., November 21.—Randolph-Macon's football warriors showed the superiority over Hampden-Sidney here today, easily winning by the score of 20 to 0, the Yellow Jackets outplaying their opponents.

Hampton-Sidney, in a game fight, but were powerless before the onslaught of the Yellow Jackets' backs. The Tigers started with a rush, but were soon brought to a standstill, and the Yellow Jackets pulled together and began to show their superiority.

When Christian intercepted a forward pass in his own thirty-yard line and ran seventy yards for the Yellow Jacket's first score it took the life out of that they appeared dangerous.

This score was made just two minutes before the end of the first half. Hampton-Sidney received the kick-off and started down the field. Driver, carrying the ball for ten yards, Thurman and Pendleton making good gains. Randolph-Macon was penalized twice for being off side.

After short gains, which netted an other first down, the ball stood on the Yellow Jacket's thirty-yard line. Bugg popped the ball for a long kick. The ball went wide of the uprights and was brought out to the twenty-yard line.

The Yellow Jackets called to advance the ball, but still held their ground. They went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the second quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the third quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the fourth quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the fifth quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the sixth quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the seventh quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

In the eighth quarter, Randolph-Macon began to make more consistent gains. After three short gains, they went around and for ten yards on the first play, but Hampton-Sidney could not get the ball into the end zone.

Neither team could gain consistently in this quarter, and they exchanged punts. The quarter ended with the ball in Randolph-Macon's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

Miller & Rhoads

Winter Underwear Days Are Here

THE MEN'S CORNER was never so well prepared to fill the wants of man.

If it's a Union Suit or a two-piece Suit you wish, it is here.

From the gauze weights of wool to heavy worsteds and fleeces. Spring needle cotton and double texture "Duofolds."

$1.00 Separate Garments. In wool, cotton and soft wool fleec, light and heavy weight.

$1.50 Norfolk and New Brunswick, heavy weight, in natural gray and white; Britannia non-scrinkable pure wool, guaze weight.

Others at $2.00 and $2.25 a garment.

Duofold Union Suits. In three weights; a pure wool outer texture, with soft Sea Island cotton next to the skin. $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00.

Norfolk and New Brunswick, Worsted, Rhode Island Suits medium and heavy weight. $2.50 Suit.

Natural Gray Wool Union Suits, heavy weight, an extraordinary value. $1.50 Suit.

Ecru Ribbed Cotton Union Suits, heavy and medium weights. $1.00 Suit.

No matter what weight, material or price, if it's Underwear, it's here.

See Our Other Ads in To-Day's Paper

HERE'S THE BEST COMBINATION IN RICHMOND

GOOD SUIT MADE TO ORDER $13.50

Browns, Blues, Grays—Snappy styles. Checks, mixtures—up-to-date.

STOUT

FINE OVERCOAT $15

Balmacaans made from the new weaves. Tailored in the styles you like.

A Splendid Outfit, Tailor-Made for $28.50

And That Means Both Suit and Overcoat.

No "reduction" sale offers any real values to equal these. They simply can't be beat.

Handsome Suits and Top Coats made in this city at $15, $18 and $20. An almost endless variety of woollens, made in the very latest designs.

Morton C. Stout & Co.

TAILORS.

714 East Main Street

HERE'S THE BEST COMBINATION IN RICHMOND

GOOD SUIT MADE TO ORDER $13.50

Browns, Blues, Grays—Snappy styles. Checks, mixtures—up-to-date